SUMMARY

A valued activity of the Concrete Pumping Association of Australia (CPAA) is ensuring that as many industry contacts are kept up-to-date of innovation, technical developments, training, education, workplace safety and regulatory changes. Facebook is used by the CPAA to keep pump owners and operators up to date with current news on their phones and tablets, fast. Weekly posts keep the page growing consistently, averaging at an additional one hundred page likes per month.

Since 2014 our Facebook page has acted as a powerful communication tool, and now that the Facebook posts consistently reaches 3,000-4,000 users the CPAA wants to share this database with members and non-members. We are offering you the opportunity to market your business through the Facebook page for $300, to attract new business and opportunities.
